CLARK'S NEW RASTAURANT .- W. A. Clark respectfully informs his friends in particular, and the public in general, that he has opened a restaurant, on the European style, on the second floor of his house on Fourth street, between Main and Market, which will be conducted in the most appropriate style, as is generally due to the restaurants of this kind on the old continent, in consequence of which he will endeavor to give to the customers who will be kind enough to patronize him, all the satisfaction and attention which is required on such occasions. Mons. Francois Gevers, late of Pargny's has the immediate charge of the restaurant. The restaurant will be furnished with every delicacy and luxury of the season, such as fruit, vegetables, fish, flesh and game.

A a time when there is great fearthat the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main eireet, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.

DE. SHALLENBERGER-Dear Sir: I have to state that your Fever and Ague Antidote is daily growing into favor, and needs no puting to recommend it, as its own merits are sufficient, wherever a trial has been made. I believe it has never failed where the administration has been proceeded with in accordance with the directions. It is a pleasure to sell medicines that meet the expectation of purchasers and give satisfaction, and as such I am proud to roommend your
